Dedication

The Helm Staff takes pride in presenting the 1957 Helm to you, Dean Wilbur Sando, for your meritorious service to Bethel College and its students. Your untiring labors in the Departments of Education and Science have not only bettered us as students, but have raised the standards of these Departments and Bethel College.

We thank you for your service in the field of Christian teaching. You encourage those who are discouraged, help those who are in difficulty, advise those who need special council, and send from Bethel College teachers, who not only have a sound educational foundation, but a sound spiritual foundation as well.

Even with all these tasks -- Dean of the College of Liberal Arts, Professor of Education and Science, Chairman of the Credits Curriculum and Instructional Committees, member of the Student Relations and Administrative Committees -- you still find time to be an Ambassador for Christ.

For all the services you have rendered to God and Bethel College, Dean Sando, we are honored to dedicate to you this tenth anniversary Helm.

Board of Directors

Rev. H. E. Bowman, Chairman, 1957

Rev. R. P. Pannabecker, Vice-Chairman, 1957

Laboring behind the scenes at Bethel College are the members of the Board of Directors. To these men go our thanks and appreciation for the labor they freely give on behalf of the college. Through the ten years of Bethel College's history, the Board of Directors have had the interest of the college at heart. It is these men who have nurtured and the policies which the College sets forth.

The members of the Board are composed of representatives of each of these districts -- Indiana, Michigan, Ohio, and Nebraska. The Board meets twice each school year -- in the Fall and in the Spring. It is at these meetings that the school policy is formulated. The Board has final authority on any matter concerning the college. The develop and approve the budget, plan and approve the employment of personnel, approve any plans for building or financing, and give final approval to the curriculum.

Again we thank you, Board Members, for the high scholastic standard we now enjoy at Bethel College.

First Board of Directors of Bethel College - 1947

Bethel College is proud of her faculty of seventeen members who serve God and Bethel with sacrificial service. They come to us from four states, Indiana, Michigan, Ohio, and Iowa, as well as from Canada. Studying, not only to improve themselves but to improve Bethel and each student that passes through her halls, the faculty strives to be approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed.

The Administration

From the desk of The President

"Hitherto hoth the Lord helped us" (I Samuel 7:12). On this tenth anniversary of Bethel College it is fitting for us to give praise to our Heavenly Father for His many blessings to us.

God has provided us with a fine student body of 284 in the first semester or three times the initial enrollment of 93. All together over 1,000 students have enrolled at Bethel College during the first ten years. Many of these are already finding their place as members of the Alumni Association in serving Christ and the church both at home and abroad.

The Bethel College faculty and staff today numbers 26 which is twice the original number. We feel that the Christian teacher is the corner stone of our program and our greatest contribution to the life of our students.

Since 1947 God has given to us a Science Building and the splendid additions to the Administration Building which have provided for offices, classrooms, library, and chapel. Now we are engaged in building a fine new auditorium-gymnasium. These are evidences of God's material blessing.

In finances Bethel College frequently has expenses larger than the income, but God has frequently manifested Himself strong in our behalf.

Through all these years Bethel College has developed a program that has met with acceptance in leading colleges and universities of America. Accreditation by the Indiana State Department for teacher training has been a definite contribution in the recent growth of our institution.

Through all these areas of progress and blessing of God we like to look upon Bethel College as a vine of His own planting.

Here and There

Miss Herman--at her post of duty.

Mr. Murroy and his family enjoy the Thanksgiving Banquet.

Isn't that punch delicious, Professor Snyder?

Wherever you see him, Mr. Steele is busy.

With the Faculty

Professor Kimbel--an artist at work.

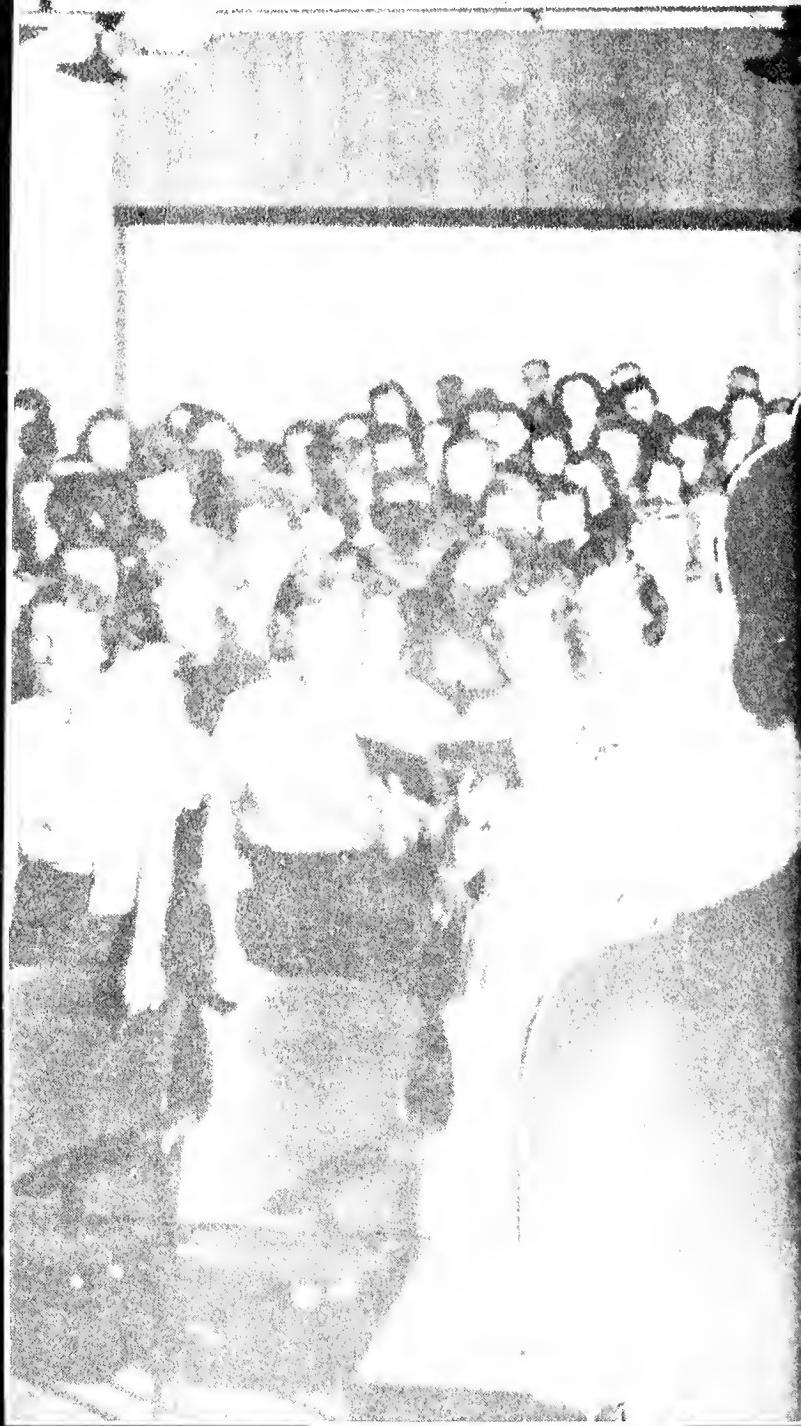

Mr. Robinson enjoys playing the piano as his hobby.

Around the fireplace with Professor Taylor and family.

Another day begins for Dr. Huffman.

The students at Bethel have one purpose in mind and that is to enrich the kingdom of God. We are studying that our minds might be so prepared that wherever God leads us we can go and do the task which He has for us and do it to His honor and His glory. We are studying to show ourselves approved and acceptable in the eyes of the Lord.

Student Council Activities

Each year the Student Council sponsors the Annual Open House held this year in November.
Dorm 6 is decorated for the occasion.

The Music Department provided an interesting display that attracted the attention of many.

The Education Department set up a display illustrating methods of teaching used in the public school today.

The Bible Department had charge of an evening service, plus a lovely display.

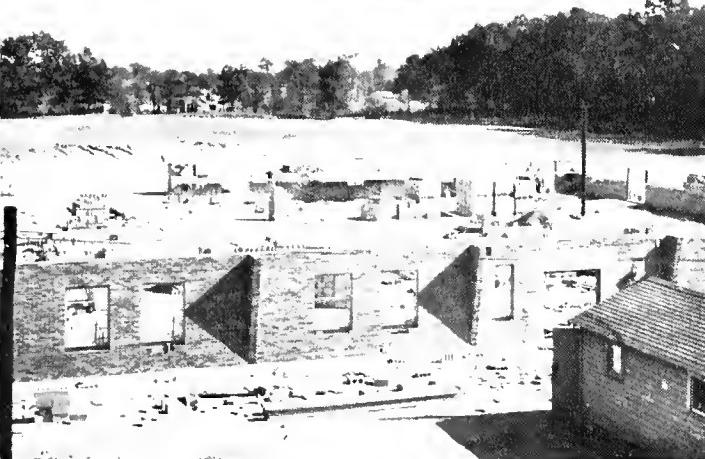

May, 1956, ground breaking.

Ray Sahmel donates time to the building project.

Our Building

The students and faculty members of Bethel College are sponsoring the building of a new gymnasium-auditorium building. This building will provide for our activities, youth conventions, etc. plus four new class rooms.

Even the girls help.

A bird's eye view!

The walls keep going up!

The arches arrive!

February, 1957, the arches are up!

Helm Chapel

Q. J. Everest, Jr., campaign manager, had charge of the program.

The Helm Staff had charge of the chapel hour on November 20th and presented a challenge to the literary societies concerning the Helm contest. A prize of new basketball uniforms was to be given to the winning society.

Mr. Joe Boland, nationally known sports announcer on radio and television, spoke to us on the place of sports in our college life.

The Fidelians won the contest by selling 197 Helm subscriptions.

Mr. Joe Boland.

John Carroll accepts the uniforms for his team. Congratulations, Fidelians!

A Day

Marcia Thompson begins a typical day at Bethel by turning off her alarm at 5:15 a.m. Follow her through these pages and get a glimpse of college life.

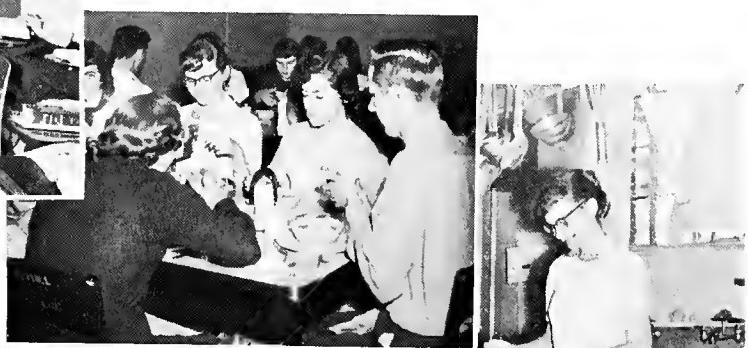

The activities of the day begin with private devotions. Spiritual strength for the day is gained by Bible reading and prayer.

Classes begin at 6:50 a.m. Here Marcia takes an active part in the class work.

Another class, another opportunity for learning.

One of the best times of the day -- dinner.

Studying in the college library, Marcia prepares for tomorrow's lessons.

"Hello, May I speak to Mary Jo?"

Marcia works in the college kitchen. Practical experience for future days.

Mary Jo and Marcia decide to get in a bit of recreation.

At Bethel

A trip to the local drug store supplies Marcio with a new billfold.

How refreshing!

At supper Marcio has devotions and leads the group in prayer.

A good eating place for that Friday evening date.

"This hair! I wish it were naturally curly."

"Thanks for a nice time, good-night."

Evening devotions.

The end of a busy day.

Don Martindale, president, with the help of Robert Eagle, vice-president, guided the Ducerians this year. They were assisted by Joanne Goodman, secretary, and Elaine Ummel, treasurer. All for them was their advisor, Professor Robinson.

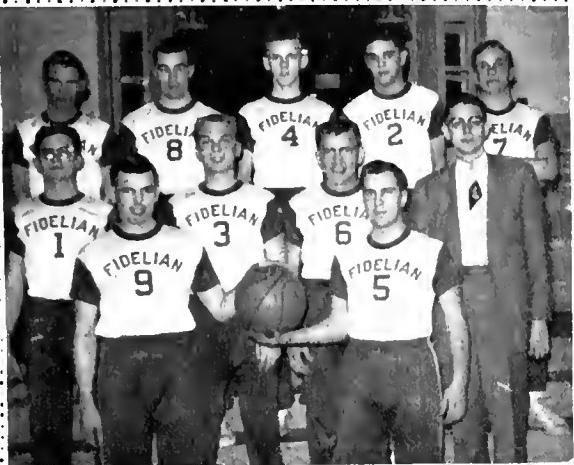

"If at first you don't succeed, try,
try again"

Upward and Onward is their cry!

Ducerians

Don't those uniforms look sharp?
They won the Helm Contest!

Champion Fidelians! Well done, girls!

James Martin, president, led the Fidelians from victory to victory with the help of Burton Schultz, vice-president. Q.J. Everest, Jr. acted as secretary and John Moran as treasurer. They were strongly backed by their advisor, Professor Murray.

President, Orville Philipp, piloted the Valerians through the year assisted by vice-president, Raymond Sahmel. Muriel Jolley acted as secretary with Charles Miller as treasurer. Professor Steele steered them on their course as their advisor.

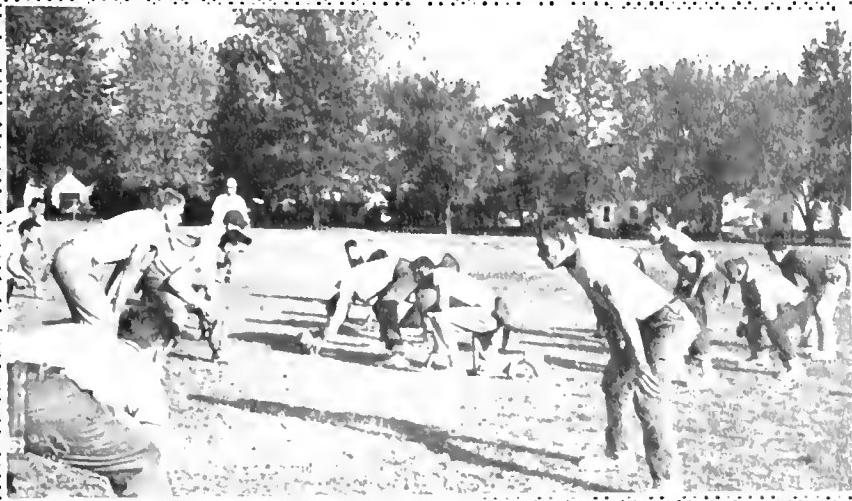

They did it again! Basketball champions of the year!

If we don't win, we at least have fun!

Social Life

SOCIAL LIFE COMMITTEE
Belle Irwin, Marcia Thompson-chairman, Lila Cooke-advisor, Jerry Lewis

The Social Life Committee feels that "all work and no play makes Jack a dull boy" and, therefore, plans parties and banquets to round out our social activities at Bethel College. These are times of fun and fellowship that will never be forgotten.

After the Thanksgiving Banquet,
Burton Schultz and Beverly Hoist
take part in the program.

Social Life

Marilyn Riddle gives the reading
"Twas the Night Before Christmas" at our annual Christmas Banquet.

After the Christmas Banquet, a play, "While Shepherds Watched Their Flocks" was put on in the chapel. We again were made to appreciate the Christmas story with all its meaning as we gave our attention to this fine program. The program was sponsored by the Social Life Committee.

The Music Club had charge of the program following the Valentine Banquet and did a splendid piece of work that provided an enjoyable evening for all.

Bethel College sends forth from its halls those who endeavor to show through their lives and testimonies the power of Jesus Christ abiding in their hearts. Christian teachers prepare to point the youth of our nation to Christ; nurses prepare to tell the afflicted of the power of God to heal the sick soul, while others prepare to serve in various professions. Bethel is proud of those of our number who are studying to serve in this way, workmen, acceptable.

Tenth Anniversary

Ten years ago Bethel College had its beginning. At that time many things we now enjoy at Bethel were unknown. In the pictures below, note the progress made in the ten years that our school has existed as an institution of higher learning.

Through the Help of Others

Chapel Speakers

REV. HAROLD WALKER

One of the most blessed hours at Bethel is the hour we lay aside our studies and activities to gather in the chapel for a time of spiritual refreshment. Here our thoughts are turned to God as we share in the experiences of others, as we listen to God's Word, or as we participate in a praise service.

We were privileged to have Rev. Harold Walker, nationally known evangelist, as the speaker for our Fall Revival. The ten days he was with us were days of blessing and challenge. Our responsibility to God and man was again made clear as we listened to the heart-searching messages God had laid upon his heart.

Rev. Gerald Foster, Vice President of Winona Lake School of Theology, gave us food for thought as he spoke to us in October.

The National Holiness Association was represented by Rev. Paul Kindschi who challenged us to make the most of our opportunities here at Bethel.

Rev. Gerrard P. Jackson, a former actor on the Shakespearean stage, has a unique ministry in giving impersonations of Bible characters. (Note small picture.)

Chapel Speakers

Rev. H. L. Matteson, District Superintendent of our United Missionary Church in Michigan, was the evangelist for our Spring Revival. His soul-searching and practical messages gave us new light and help in our spiritual growth. His messages will long linger with us and continue to bear fruit.

Rev. Robert Struhbar of the Missionary Church Association spoke to us of the importance of the Holy Spirit in evangelism.

Rev. Robert Yunker, pastor of the local Methodist Church, brought us highlights of his recent trip around the world.

Rev. Weyburn Johnson, one of our own missionaries to India, challenged us with our responsibility to the millions of that land who at this hour sit in heathen darkness.

On January 17th we were privileged to have Peter VanWoerden with us in our chapel service. We enjoyed his music on both the piano and organ and were challenged by his message from the Word of God. (Picture appears on page 65)

Chapel Speakers

REV. L. L. WARK

Rev. L. L. Wark, principal of Emmanuel Bible College, Kitchener, Ontario, spoke in our chapel on February 27th. He challenged us with using what we have in our service to God.

Mr. J. C. Bontrager of Elkhart, Indiana spoke to us as one who has been a financial success in life. The story of his life was of real interest and blessing as we saw what God can do with a life completely dedicated to Him.

Bishop J. Paul Taylor, bishop in the Free Methodist Church, challenged our thinking and spiritual life when he spoke to us on February 8th.

Rev. Richard Reilly, Foreign Secretary of the United Missionary Society, gave us a brief report of the mission fields and what he saw there on his recent visit.

Through Music

The Music Club is an organization that was formed to bring together those of the Bethel College students who were interested in music. They promote a more sound musical foundation for Bethel and her students; one that is based on Christ, the cornerstone upon which Bethel is founded. They realize that through music there is growth and enrichment and are always striving to have a program that will realize this end.

A Cappella Choir

The Bethel College A Cappella Choir, made up of thirty-four carefully selected students under the direction of Professor Franklin Lusk, an alumnus of Bethel College, has attained the finesse so vital in portraying the beauty of salvation through Jesus Christ our Lord.

The choir members represent Ohio, Indiana, Michigan, and Ontario. This year they sing in all of these areas.

The spring tour took the choir through Southwestern Ohio, Ontario, and Eastern Michigan. When the choir members, gowned in blue and white, blend their voices -- triumphant, meditative, or filled with pathos -- audiences everywhere know that they have studied to show themselves approved unto God.

Franklin Lusk, Director

Oratorio Society

The "Hallelujah Chorus" of the "MESSIAH" continues to ring in our ears when we remember the presentation given this year by the Oratorio Society. Again we were thrilled as we listened to the message of this great oratorio which proclaims the advent of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ.

The "MESSIAH" was presented on December 16th in the First Methodist Church of Mishawaka under the direction of Professor Franklin Lusk. This year a string quartet, members of the South Bend Symphony Orchestra, accompanied the group and added favorably to the presentation. Professor Raymond Weaver accompanied at the organ and Professor Donald Murray at the piano.

Soloists were Charlene Potterbaum, soprano; Elaine Ummel, contralto; George Elia, tenor; and Eldon Fretz, bass.

The above picture was taken at the final rehearsal of the "MESSIAH".

The Spring presentation of the Oratorio Society was the dramatic oratorio, "ELIJAH" given in the new auditorium of Bethel College.

Bethel College provides opportunities for service in the local churches. Young men and women lend their services in singing, teaching, leadership, etc. to bring knowledge of Jesus Christ to others.

Bethel College provides many opportunities for those who wish to work their way through college. Babysitting is one of these ways, and perhaps the most used one.

Through Student Organizations

Missionary Fellowship

The Missionary Fellowship is an organization made up of students interested in missionary work. This group supports Lester Ike, missionary to Japan, and annually sponsors the missionary convention. Prayer meetings are held twice a week in the interest of missions. Truly they endeavor to promote missions at Bethel College and keep before us the fact that Christ said, "Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature".

Missionary Convention

"Go ye into all the world....."
was emphasised in our missionary convention held November 15th and 16th.

Rev. Dale McClain, missionary under the Oriental Missionary Society, was the principle speaker for the convention. His burning zeal for Christ made a lasting impression upon our lives and the word of God was again made real to our hearts.
Miss Goldie Severn, who is one of our missionaries to Africa, took part in the convention.

A full house was challenged by the film "Mid-Century Martyrs" shown in one of the evening services.

The challenge and inspiration of this convention still lingers at Bethel College.

Ambassador Club

Street meetings, prayer meetings, services at the missions, and soul winning classes are on the agenda of the Ambassador's Club. They endeavor throughout the year to give aid in service to others as they live their lives as "ambassadors for Christ".

Ambassador Activities

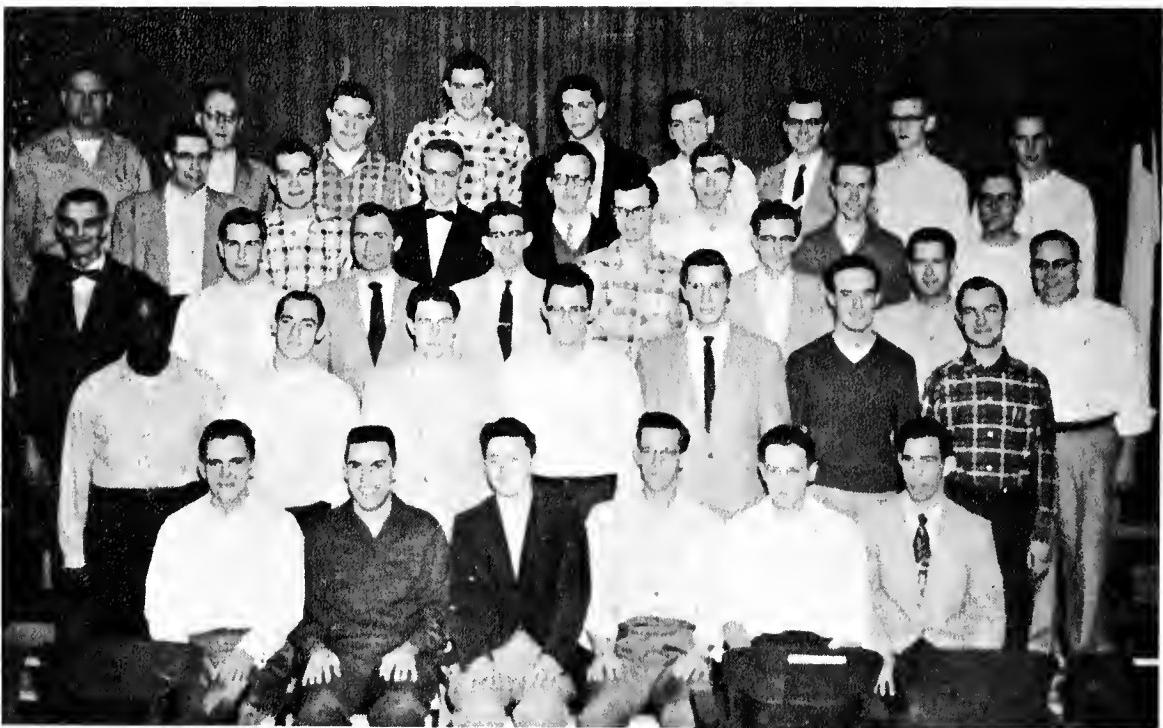

Hope Rescue Mission. The Ambassador's Club holds a meeting once a month here.

Ray Sahmel, one of Bethel's students, speaks in the mission telling again the Gospel story and its power to free from sin.

The girls help to serve a hot meal to those who come to the mission for help.

Street Meeting. Another service that the Ambassador's Club holds. Singing, witnessing, and a short message are in the evening's program.

Ministerial Club

The Ministerial Club is a club organized to serve those students who plan to enter the Gospel ministry. Each year the club sponsors a ministerial clinic, when experienced men in the ministerial field come and give practical help and advice to those who plan to proclaim the message of salvation in our churches. Some of our ministerial students take part in our weekly prayer meetings, others serve as student pastors, and still others serve as gospel team speakers. This practical experience will be of help to them as they leave the halls of Bethel College.

We study that we may be spiritually educated always reaching for those spiritual advancements that will make us better servants of Jesus Christ.

In Secular Service

Teachers' Club

The Teachers' Club is our newest club at Bethel College. Its members are those students interested in being public school teachers. The endeavor of the club is to bring before its members some of the difficulties and problems arising in the field and their solution. These students realize that their task is not merely to educate young minds but that they must be an example for Christ to the students they will teach.

Recently organized at Bethel is the Christian Nurses' Fellowship, a club that will provide times of profit and blessing for those interested in nursing. Our nurses not only have help for the body but hope for the soul through Christ Jesus.

Guidance

Bethel College students taking the College Ability Test.

The Guidance Program at Bethel College has been given much thought and consideration. The two main areas covered are Testing and Counseling. In the testing program all students are required to take certain college ability tests; students in Orientation classes are given occupational interest tests; and all students have the privilege of taking various aptitude tests. The main use of the results of these tests is that the instructors may better know their students and be able to help each one individually, more effectively. They also enable more efficient and more satisfactory counseling as the student comes in contact with his own personal counselor--some member of the faculty. A Guidance Committee of the College composed of five members is in charge of the Guidance program. This committee in turn assists other faculty members in doing a better job of aiding the individual student.
